Mrs. William Collins.

Carrie Dake Collins, wife of Will. C. Collins, now of Syracuse, but f merly of this village, died suddenly at the Binghamton state hospital Sunday morning, where she had been cared for for several years. Undertaker W. D. Briggs went to Binghamton to take charge of the remains, which were brought to Homer for burial on the 4:54 train Monday afternoon. The remains were met at the station by Mr. Collins and his sons, Henry and Louis and by a company of friends, who accompanied them to Glenwood cemetery. Rev. Benjamin L. Herr, pastor of the Baptist church officiated at the burial and the pall bearers were W. H. Foster, A. L. Smith, C. R. Merrill and C. H. Stevens.

Mrs. Collins was the only daughter of the late Lewis R. Dake and Louisa W. Dake of Syracuse, and was born about 54 years ago. She was married to William Collins of this village May 17, 1887.

They resided at the Collins home in North Main street until a few years ago, when Mrs. Collins' mind became affected and she was taken to the Binghamton institution, where it was hoped that she would be restored to health of body and mind. Hopes had been entertained of late by her husband and her sons that she would recover soon and that they might once more establish their home. Mrs. Collins had written rational letters in which she looked forward to home coming again. But these hopes were not to be realized and death came suddenly and unexpectedly last Sunday.

Mrs. Collins was a most estimable and lovable woman, a faithful and devoted wife and mother and she had many warm friends in Homer, who heard of her sad death with sincere sorrow. She was a member of the Homer Congregational church and when in health was a helpful church worker.

The sympathy of many friends goes out to the bereaved family.

She is survived by her husband and two sons, Henry Collins of Rochester and Lewis Collins, who makes his home with his father in Syracuse and by her mother, Mrs. Louisa W. Dake of Syracuse.

COLLINS—In Binghamton, N. Y., April 25, 1914, Mrs. Carrie Dake Collins, wife of Willam C. Collins, of Syracuse, N. Y., formerly of Homer, ged about 54 years.

My Dear Brother & Sister

I Acknoledge the Receipt of Your letter of 25th Jany Came to hand 14th Feby, I had almost Given Over Ever ~~[illegible]~~ hearing from You Again was Fearfull whether my letter to You of 12th July had Not Miscarried as I was lothe to Believe You would So long Neglect me as I am the Only Brother You have and I that You are the Only Sister I Fear as I have Not heard a word from Our Sister Hannah Sence I wrote to You. I wrote to them at the Same time but have Recd No Answer. the last I heard Hannah was Intirely Blind, I agree with You in Saying we Ought to write Oftener than we do. Sence the Expence is So trifiling, we Sertainly Ought to Improve the Short Time that we Can Expect to Stay hear better than we have done, for I find that I am Failing fast my Eye Sight is Almost Gone which You May plainly See by my writing have Now Got to be an Old man perhaps you are aware that in June Next will be 82 Your Sister Polly two Years Younger. Both Now well & Smart for Our Age
Your Age I have forgotten but think You Must be Rising of 70 ......
Altho I injoy a Good State of health now have had a Very poor turn was taken ill Very Sudden the 7th Novr last. the first of my Riding Out was on New Years day, for four weeks of the Time kept my Room & Bed Most the Time had a Docter Steady, but through the Mercy of God has Seen fit to Spare me a little longer for what purpose am unable to Say as I tell them I have done all the Good and all the hurt I Expect to do — — You are Aware that Our Family was Scattered (in an Early day) as it were to the four ~~and~~ winds of Heaven, but I trust ere long or at the Fulness of time we Shall all be Gathered to Gather Never More to part, for I Must Believe that God has prepared a place of Happyness (that in his time) for all the human Family of Man, Notwithstanding all the Conflicting Creeds and Ceremonies they Shall Eventaly be Brough to Gather in peace and harmony when the lion and the lamb Shall lay down togather and None to Molest or Make Afraid — for Crist Said I will that all Shall Come to the knowledge of the Truth and be Saved, who will dispute the accomplishment of his will perhaps You will Make the Same Excuse for not writing that a Great Many Others Make (viz) I dont know what to write About it, I have No News &c. I want You to write Just as You would Talk ware You present, I do Not wish You to wait till the Moon falls down or Your lakes and Rivers are Set a fire & burn up it is the domestic Affairs of Your Family I want to know how You Git Along as I Understand Your Children are all Married and left, whether my Brother is able to do much, I must think he is able to write, which I Should be Glad To Receive a line from him in his Own hand writing, and You my Dear Sister why dont You write Your Self You Used to be a Good writer Can it be that You have Got to Old or have Forgotten what You Once knew as Regards my Self I Informed You in a former letter that I live with Our Oldest Son Horace who is a Farmer of the Second Class, he raised last Summer 120 B. Wheat 100 B. of Corn & 400 of Oates Straw & provender plenty keeps 20 Cows & twenty head of Other Cattle 4 horse kind & 40 Sheep Our potato Crop did Not Come in as well as Usual but Still there is No Scarsety they are worth 40ct, wheat $1.25. Corn 75. Oates 30 Hay $8 dollars We have a Very Steady Cold winter with No thaws the Snow on the Ruff of Building that Came the first of Decem. a part Now Remains have had No Storms Since Jany the Snow Now in the wood About 2½ feet and Good Sleying for More than two Months or Since the first of December I Shall Bring my letter to a Close well Suposing those little Simple details will Not Interesting to You but You are Under No Obligation to Read them I must Omit writing for one Essential Reason that is I Cannot See the Ruling on my paper to keep my lines Strait that You will plainly discover - I howe~~ver Cannot Omit~~ telling that I Cannot keep my thoughts from wandring Back to Our Old parental hom and thinking of them Beautifull Grapes, plumbs ~~peaches~~ peaches, Cherries Chesnuts & walnuts & Above all that little Fish pond of Beautifull Trout, of the plesure we Used to take Feeding them, the whole Now Seames but a dream as things that ha bin but are Now past an Gone Never More to Return, and as they are Gone from us, we Soon be Gone from them die and forgitt all I have Not heard direct from East Hartford for a Great Number of Years altho I wrote to the postmaster of E. H. but Got No Information Only that th

the Town was divided and the East part Called Manchester, he Mentiond Amos Buckland & N. Drake old Nathanel Drake Oldest Son, & Simeon Wetherel whome I have No Remembrence of, & of Doctor Cook that died a year & half ago in Our House that You went from when You went to the westward.....
I think of Nothing More to write, Only to Inform You of a Sad Accident we Meet With on the 10th of Feby at one a Clock in the Morning Our Large Tavern Stand in the Village was Burnt the First discovered by a Girl who alarmed the people there being plenty of water but Could Not Stop the Raging Flame it begun in the Barn where had a few days previous bin put 10 or 12 Tun of Hay, 3 valuable Horses 1 Cow & Calf. 2 Sleighs 4 or 5 Set of Harness Bin of Oats 3. Buffalos. Blankets Saddels Bridels &c, the Flame Soon Communicated to the House as the two Corners Stood with 12 feet of Each Other as the fire took at one End. they Saved Most of the Furniture the House was very full they Saved 6 Stoves one of which belong to Our Family and one of the horses & about 200 dollars of Furnature the latter Mostly Saved the whole loss Estemated at two thousand dol. fifteen hundred is Our loss the House was 66 feet by 30 two Story a piazza in Front Compleatly Finished a Room Or Hall in the upper part what the call the Garret 40 feet by 20 An Other Room 18 by 20 Celler under the whole where 1 bb. Beef 4 or 5 of Soap & puncheon of Spirits Some Fish Garding Sauce &c all lost, Accidentaly or Carelessness the the Buildings was Not Insured as the pollacy had run Out a few months before. Our house in plain Sight I Could On my Bed & See the fire it Shined through my window, & on the wall altho 1 1/4 Mile Horace went down it all fell just as he Got there it was a Immendious Cold Night but luckely No wind which Saved the Village ....——

A Few of My Childhood thoughts

Remembring. of Our Youthfull days when we ware in Our Childiſh Glee Our pearents, did Not disobay but Moſt lovelingly we did agree we used to Ramble Ore the plain Som pretty Flowers there to Find of Our fortigue, did Not Complain and Brot. them hom, to Our Mother kind we used to go to a lovely pond where the white lilly there did Grow the Moſt Beautifull to look upon of any Blaſsom that are did Blow we us[illegible] to go upon the hill the Hurtleburry there we Found after we had Our Baſkets fill'd then Returned unto Our home we did Offen, to the Orchard go Moſt Beautifull plumbs, there we found their was No Such plumbs that ere did Grow in all the Neighbourhood Round then there was a Hansom Spring So handy to the house did lay Greate pleaſure at the time did bring to See the little Fiſhes play

Round that Spring there was a Grape The Moſt delicious of its kind we Could go there. Sat and Eate when ere. that we had a Mind But Oh. a laſs a diſmal Theme For Our thoughts to dwell upon by us it Cant No More be Seen Untill Our Mortal life is Gone we are Seperated, far and wide From our ancient happy home and Our once pleaſent Fire Side In diſtant Countries for to Roa[illegible] Our once loving. Broth[illegible]hood And kind Siſters that we had Some are Buried under the Sod
And are Numbered with the dead Their is two of us thats Now alive as to Our Siſter Hannah, Cannot tell let us Now So Spend Our lives as to be agreable to God, will we Soon Shall go & all ~~Our~~ Race to Join the Heavenly throng above where we Shall See our Makers Face and Triump in his Heavenly love

1 And it Came to pass - at that Time that Judah, from his Brethren went down and turned in to a Certain Adullamite And there a hansom Maid he found to him his Father did Command to Go into his Brothers, wife then and there must take her hand And to thy Brother rais up Seed but he knew the Sead would Not be his then to the widow he did procede but only her to deceave 9. for Onan, he was Not agreed to what his Father did Command and at the time he Spilt the Seed upon the Naked Borron land 10 Now this thing displeased the lord the Course that Onan did persue and for a Rightious Just woard the Lord then also Onan Slew Then Judah to his daughter Said a widow, with your Father Must abide

Now Madam. what have you to Say for Committing Such a Crime a debt that you Can Never pay while you Remain in Time

25 Then Said Tamar, Il tell the plain if you will Sit. Ile wait a while he that Owns this Braslet & Cane tis by that man, I am with Child

Now Sir if you Can find that Man which you Say you much define you Can then, Give your Command and him Taken & burnt with Fire

26 then Judah acknoledg the Signet & Staff and Saide She had bin More Righteous than I becaus I did Give her Shelah my Son She Contrived this plan, with Me to ly

Then this widow was dismist went to her Fathers as before at the parting, Gave her kiss and he Never knew her More it was a prudent thing She did to Git his Signet and his Cane if that She had only failed of that Judah would Caused her to bin Slain when the widow Time, was fully Out and at the Time She Got to Bed there was a little hand put Out they tied round it a Scarlet thread.

24 then he drew it back again and there he held it Fast then his Brother he Came Out and that one Came Out the last Twins Named Pharez & Zarah

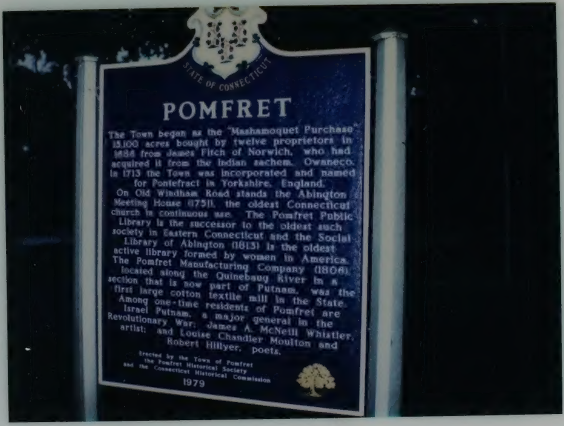
Pomfret Town Center



STATE OF CONNECTICUT

POMFRET

The Town began as the "Mashamoquet Purchase" 15,100 acres bought by twelve proprietors in 1686 from James Fitch of Norwich, who had acquired it from the Indian sachem, Owaneco. In 1713 the Town was incorporated and named for Pontefract in Yorkshire, England.

On Old Windham Road stands the Abington Meeting House (1751), the oldest Connecticut church in continuous use. The Pomfret Public Library is the successor to the oldest such society in Eastern Connecticut and the Social Library of Abington (1813) is the oldest active library formed by women in America. The Pomfret Manufacturing Company (1806) located along the Quinebaug River in a section that is now part of Putnam, was the first large cotton textile mill in the State.

Among one-time residents of Pomfret are Israel Putnam, a major general in the Revolutionary War; James A. McNeill Whistler, artist; and Louise Chandler Moulton and Robert Hillyer, poets.

Burnham, John, Hartford. Invt. £487-18-07. Taken 15 May, 1721, by Samuel Burnham and Jabez Colt. Will dated 12th April, 1721.

I, John Burnham, do make and ordain this my last will and testament: I give to my loving wife 1-3 part of all my houseing and land; also 1-3 part of all personal estate to be at her own dispose. I give my son John Burnham 10 acres of meadow land, being part of my lower lott, he to have it on the south side of sd. lott as is abutted southerly on land of Samuel Burnham and Richard Gilman, the east end to be at the upland, the west end at Podunk River, the north side to be a straight line from the upland to Podunk River. Also, I give to my son John 17 acres of upland on the east side of the country road which lies westward of sd. son's now dwelling house. I give unto my three sons, Jonathan Burnham, Jabez Burnham and Caleb Burnham, all the rest of my meadow land and swamp land in Podunk Meadow (not given to my son John) to be equally divided between them. As to the number of acres, my sons Jonathan and Jabez to have my upper lott, my son Caleb to have his part next to and abutting upon the 10 acres of meadow given my son John. The remainder of my lower lott to be equally divided between my sd. sons Jonathan and Jabez. Also, I give to son Jonathan 1-2 of my piece of land lying westward of the lane or way that runs westward of my dwelling house to John Morton's house, my sd. son to have the north half of sd. piece of land; and also I give sd. Jonathan 1-4 part of all my land which lyeth eastward of the 17 acres of upland given to my son John. Also, I give to my son Jabez 1-2 of my dwelling house. I give unto my son Caleb 1-2 of my piece of land lying westward of the beforementioned lane or way to John Morton's house; also the easterly part of my orchard. Also I give my son Caleb the other half of my dwelling house and the land it standeth on, for and during the term of 10 years after he come to the age of 21 years, and at the end of that time the sd. half of my house to belong to my son Jabez. I give unto my daughter Mary Webster £10. I give unto my 4 daughters, Rachell, Amy, Sarah and Elizabeth, all the rest of my moveables or personal estate not before in this my will disposed of, to be equally divided between them. But my will is that if the sd. estate given to my 4 daughters shall or do not amount to the value of £35 as money at the inventory price for each of my sd. 4 daughters, that then my 4 sons, John, Jonathan, Jabez and Caleb, shall pay unto each of my sd. 4 daughters so much as will make up each of their portions to the sum of £35 as money, to be recovered of them or either of them my sd. sons as shall neglect or refuse to pay his part of the same to my sd. daughters or either of them within one year after their portions become due to them. I make my wife Mary executrix, and my son John Burnham executor.

X Burnham, Thomas, Hartford. Died 24 June, 1688. Invt. £69-06-06. Taken 11 October, 1688, by Nathaniel Stanly & George Grave. Will Nuncupative.

Testimony of Caleb Stanly, that Mr. Thomas Burnham a short time before he died sent for Col. John Allyn and himself and asked John Allyn to write his Will, which he did write according to his desire, which he gave to his wife Ann Burnham to keep. He gave to his daughter Rebeckah Burnham his House & Home lott, & His wife Ann Burnham to be Executrix. He gave to his three sons, Thomas, John and Samuel, his plowing Land in Podunk Meadow, to be equally divided among them. He gave a parcell of Land Eastward of Edward Kings Land neer Podunck Brook unto William Morton his Wife. Also he gave Land in possession of Samuel Gains that he bought of Richard Risley unto the wife of Samuel Gains during her life, and afterward to one of her sons. He gave to Thomas Gains, his grand son, all his right in the Land he had in Partnership wth Mr. Lord at the saw Mill. He gave his daughter Morton £10, and to his daughter Moorcocke £10, and some small Legacies to his sons Richard & William Burnham.

In Court, 26 January, 1690: Rebeckah now the wife of William Man.

Court Record, Page 15—26 June, 1690: Upon complaint of Wm Man that his wive's father Thomas Burnham's Will and Testament was neglected to be Exhibited in Court & the Inventory of his Estate, and that thereby he the sayd Man was like to be dispossessed of what his Father gave to his Wife, the Governor and Assistants appointed the Court this day to meet and settle it. Result: the Will could not be found, and the Inventory that was taken after the decease of sd. Thomas Burnham, with the Testimony of Caleb Stanly to the General provisions of the Will, were accepted by the Court.

John Allyn, Assistant (upon his office oath), John Allyn, Secretary.

To the Honourd Court of Assistants now sitting In Hartford: Whereas the Last will & Testament of Mr Thomas Burnham Deceased Is by som (as is supposed suriptissous ( ) or means Taken or Removed out of ye Custody of ye Relict & Executrix of said Will, by which Removal or Concealment of said Will ye Just & Legall Settlement of ye Estate of ye Deceased According to his said Will hath been obstructed, therefore that Justice & Right may bee Done And ye said Will proved According to Law, I Humbly crave yt ye several psons be sumoned to Appear att This Court to be Examined Concerning said Will uppon there Oath.

To the Marshall, to serve upon Mrs Burnam:

Mrs. Ann Burnam, these are to acquaint you that Mr. Wm Man Makes Complaint that to his great damage you doe neglect the duty of your place, as you are made executrix by the Last will & Testament of your late deceased Husband, in not Exhibiting his sayd will Into the court & proveing the same together with the Inventory of his Estate; & it being known that your deceased husband did make, declare, signe & seale his Last will & Testament, & Left it in your keeping, the Assistants of this county have ordered that Thursday, the 26th of this Moneth, there shall be a speciall county court held at Hartford to prove the sayd will of Thomas Burnam Deceased, & the Inventory of his estate to be Exhibited, where you are to appear to make oath that you have made a True prsentment of the Estate of the deceased to the apprizers If you are capable; If not, Mr Wm pitkin is desired to repyayre to you to give you your oath, & you are therefore required in their Maties Name to deliver your sayd husbands will to the Marshall to bring it to me that it may by me be preserved & presented to the court afoarsayd to be proved, or your selfe appear & present it to the court the 26th of this month as above, & of soe doeing you may not fayle. Dated in Hartford, June 19, 1690.

P. John Allyn, Assist.

24 June 1690.

Honred Sor, Mr Ayllin: Thes ffew Lines are to Lett you understand my Ssorrowffull Condishon. I have bene weke and Lame a long time, and Now did begin to be som what beter be ffor my son Will man did make so much trobell by ye athority in Sending up ye marshall, and by Souerving Warnts on all my Children, by which mens greved me very much, as I have declared to ye marshall when he was at my house. Thear ffor my earnest desir is that you would Not Let any thing goe fforward in a way off Setling my estate whillst I Can Spak with you my Sellffe, and then I hop I shall do it to all my Childrens' Satisffaxshon. Ye writin which my son Will man took, I know not what was in it, for I never heard it read. My son Will man asked me to se ye writing. I told him he mit. So when he had it he took it and put it in his pocit with out my Leveffe.
